

Post Office Closure Disgrace

Brandon Lewis and Local Conservatives campaigning to keep our Post Offices open

Brandon Lewis, the Conservative Party's parliamentary candidate for Great Yarmouth, has slammed the Government after learning that up to 2,500 post offices across East Anglia face the axe.

Brandon said: "I cannot believe the attitude of the Government which just seems to fail to recognise the massive importance of the post office, especially in the rural areas.

2,000 sub-postmasters have already marched on parliament protesting at Post Office closures and presented a 4 million signature petition to the Government.

Please fill in my online petition to prevent further cuts to our post offices at:

FACT:

4,000 Post Offices have closed under Labour and a further 2,500 are expected to close by 2009

www.TellBrandonLewis.com